CHILDREN PLAYING WITH MATCHES SET BARN AFIRE

Structure and Contents At Chalfont Are A Total Loss

LOSS PLACED AT $4,000

Youngsters Got Matches From Iron Barrel Which Belonged to Brothers

CHALFONT, Sept. 19.—The large stone and frame barn on the farm of Philip Gross, colored, was totally destroyed by fire along with its contents of one cow, 10 tons of hay, 50 bushels of wheat and small farming implements valued at $300, on Monday afternoon at about one o'clock.

The loss is estimated at $4,000 with about $2,500 of insurance.

The Gross farm is located between Chalfont and Hilltown, near Newville. Chalfont Fire Company was called and saved some of the out-buildings, the residence and also the buildings on the farm of Frank Lynch, which adjoined the Gross place.

County Fire Marshal William L. Stackhouse and Robert Graham, assistant chief of Chalfont Fire Company, made an investigation and today stated that the fire had been caused by two of the Gross children.

There are six children in the Gross family, Philip, 16; John and James, 12; Robert, 8; Edith, 5; and Joseph, 7. The first four smoked cigarettes, according to their own confessions and would buy a five-cent box of matches which they concealed in an iron barrel near the barn where their parents would not see them.

Monday afternoon Edith and Joseph got some of the matches and struck them on the stone sides of the barn, tossing them into a hens' nest which was in an old sleigh. The youngsters then left, not realizing what they had done. The hay in the hen's nest caught fire, ignited the sleigh and set fire to the barn.

BY THE STROLLER

Walter Buchler is the first Bristol man that I know of who is assured of getting tickets for the World's Series. He told me yesterday that he has assurance of getting the much coveted pasteboards.

It is a safe bet that "Walt" is happy over the fact that he is going to see one of the championship games.

September

O Blessed month, you make us glad,
You bring us many a prayed-for blessing—
You don't know what a time we've had;
This summer has been most distressing.
Heat and humidity, by golly,
Have brought us grief and melancholy!
Now you will bring us weather cool,
Inspiring us to play and roister;
You'll pack the kiddies off to school,
Omit the clam, bring forth the oyster;
Trot out the actorine and actor,
And lend us many a pleasant factor.

2 BUS LINES NOW OPERATE IN AND OUT OF BOROUGH

Bristol, which for a long time lamented the lack of a bus service, can now boast of not only one line but two.

This week the Delaware River Coach Company began operating one bus, between Morrisville and Torresdale. A two-hour schedule is being maintained by the one bus.

The route is the same as the Trenton, Bristol & Philadelphia Street Railway Company between Morrisville and North Bristol. The bus then follows Farragut avenue, Pond street, Jefferson avenue, Garden, Beaver, Pond, Mill, Otter, to State Road, Croydon, Cedar avenue, to P. R. R. Croydon station, thence over the Bristol Pike to Torresdale.

The People's Rapid Transit, P. R. R., and Mitten Management, are operating an interstate bus line between here and New York, running five buses daily, each way.

In addition to listing the names of all the residents of age and the business firms in the communities which it covers, the book has a street directory for each of the towns listed.

In the section devoted to Bristol there are 49 Smiths listed; Johnson, 47; Dugan, 45; Gallagher, 31; Jones, 30; McIlvaine, 28; Thompson, 27; McGee, 26; White, 25; Wright, 25; Moore, 25; McGinley, 23; Brody, 23; Dougherty, 22; Boyle, 21; Miller, 20; Moffo, 19; Green, 19; Fine, 18.

EXPERIMENT NOW WITH ONE-WHEEL AMPHIBIAN

New Type Plane, Made Here, Accepted; Army Fliers Make Tests

HAVE AUTO-GIRO TESTS

By Francis L. Armstrong
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

Experiments with the new one-wheel Leoning amphibian plane are being carried on by army fliers following acceptance of the new type plane on its completion at the Keystone aircraft works in Bristol. The machine, the first to be equipped with the new Wright typhoon, inverted twelve-cylinder engine, balances lightly like a bicycle on its one wheel, and is saved from tipping by long wing skids. The single wheel can be drawn into a box similar to a sailboat centerboard after the takeoff. This construction eliminates danger encountered by pilots in water landings and does away with much of the external bracing.

With three auto-giro test planes rapidly nearing completion for use in two premier endurance and safety contests, and with a new plant for manufacture of the planes being established at Pitsburgh Field, Hallowell, it became apparent today that Pennsylvania is forging to the front in one of the newest aviation activities.

The Cierva auto-giro, the queer looking windmill plane that rises and lands vertically is expected to be ready for commercial production, at conclusion of the national air tour, which starts from Detroit, October 5.

Three test planes have been entered in the national tour, two 300-horsepower, Wright Whirlwind powered, three seater "jobs" and one 200-horsepower machine. One auto-giro also has been entered in the Guggenheim Air Safety Contest, with entries closing October 31.

A plane of 100 horsepower also has been developed, it was learned today from G. S. Childs, vice-president of the Pitsburgh Company. The larger machines are of the commercial type while the 100-horsepower plane will be for sport use.

The outlook for the new machines was clarified today with publication of the reports of engineers. The auto-giro will be able to hover stationary in the air, will maintain an air efficiency of approximately the same percent maintained by standard construction planes, but will be five miles an hour slower at an average air speed.

The new type plane will not be generally useful for all mail routes, Childs pointed out, because of the speed factor.

"Air mail provides a separate engineering problem," Childs told International News Service. "The demand there is for ever increasing speed, and not particularly for safety. We have considerable doubt whether the auto-giro will be of any use in the air mail field without radical engineering changes."

"The chief field for the plane will be for transportation and for individual use, adapting the airplane to the needs of the average man. Because of the element of safety, it seems probable that in many fields the auto-giro will replace the present type plane."

"At some time it may be the replacement will be complete, but not until the mechanical differences responsible for a slower speed have been solved."

Judge Keller sentenced Falkenrich on the charge of transporting liquor, to pay a fine of $100 and costs and serve two months in the county prison. On the other charge, sentence was suspended.

After pleading guilty to a charge of operating an automobile while drunk near Perkaskie, Harry Lloyd Bissey, of Perkaskie, was fined $200 and costs yesterday by Judge Keller.

ATTENDING RIDER COLLEGE

Frank Sugalski, of Barry Place, is enrolled as a student at Rider Business College, Trenton, where he is taking a course in bookkeeping, accountancy and banking.

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 19.—Dr. George T. Fox, of Bristol, was the first witness called to the stand this morning in the case of Maria Tilotta who is on trial charged with plotting the murder of her husband.

Dr. Fox testified that Giovanni Tilotta was taken to the Harriman Hospital December 29, 1928, and that he died the following day. The witness gave the cause of Tilotta's death, describing it in a professional manner.

The State called its principal witness, Guilemo Guicardo, 34, of Brooklyn. Guicardo said that he first came to Bristol on July 4th, 1928, and accompanied by Giuseppe Guida, went to visit the Tilotta house at 1144 Beaver street. Guicardo said he was a distant relative of Guida's and that he, Guida and Mrs. Tilotta sat on the front porch of the Tilotta residence. "She asked me to come in the house," said the witness, meaning that Mrs. Tilotta had invited him inside the house. "She told me that her husband had beat her up and that he was jealous of Joe Guida. She said that she had loved Guida for a year and that since that time she had not liked her husband."

"I told her to tell Guida to stay away but she said 'no' she wanted to get rid of her husband."

The witness then explained that the woman had asked him to kill her husband for her. He said he told her he would not kill anybody, that he had been a corporal in the army and had seen enough of killing. The woman persisted in urging Guicardo to do away with her husband and finally told him that Guida would pay him for it, it was stated.

The witness then testified that he had told the Tilotta woman that he did not need the money; that he made $45 a week as a concrete maker in Brooklyn. He said that Mrs. Tilotta urged him to hire someone to go to Bristol and kill her husband.

The next witness was William Lovett, of Bristol Township. It was on the porch of the Lovett home that he found Giovanni Tilotta after Tilotta had been severely beaten by New York gunmen.

Lovett took Tilotta to the Harriman Hospital.

Judge Shull stated he wished to close the case today, and intimated that if necessary court might be continued until midnight.

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 19.—The State will ask for the death penalty in the case of Mrs. Maria Tilotta, 35, Bristol, Italian woman, the lone female member of an eternal triangle, accused of plotting to kill her husband, John Tilotta, last December.

Fifty-two jurors were called yesterday before the panel of twelve men were selected to hear the case before Judge Samuel E. Shull, of Stroudsburg, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Bucks County.

After the forty-seventh juror had been drawn yesterday the original panel was exhausted and Judge Shull directed the Sheriff to secure fifteen extra jurors from the court room. From this number the twelfth juror was selected.

District Attorney Arthur M. Eastburn, who is prosecuting the case, opened to the jury and briefly outlined the State's case. Testimony will be produced, he said, to show that Mrs. Tilotta and two others, Joseph Guida, convicted at the last term of court of first degree murder and sentenced to death, and Giacomo Guicardo, Brooklyn, planned the murder of John Tilotta so that Mrs. Tilotta and Guida could live together.

Guicardo, who was paid $500 to hire New York gunmen to beat Tilotta to death, will be produced as the star witness for the State. District Attorney Eastburn told the jury. He is a prisoner awaiting trial on a charge of murder and is incarcerated in the Bucks County Prison.

Dr. John J. Sweeney, of Doylestown, coroner of Bucks county, was the first witness and only one called yesterday before court adjourned. Coroner Sweeney stated that the post-mortem examination that he performed on Tilotta at the Harriman Hospital in Bristol, convinced him that the man came to his death as a result of internal hemorrhage as a result of external violence probably caused by a blunt instrument. Tilotta's skull was fractured, the coroner testified, and his body was covered with bruises and abrasions.

During the drawing of the jury the six women in the panel for this term were challenged by J. Leslie Kilcoyne, of Bristol, attorney for the defendant. John Tilotta, the woman's husband, died in the Harriman Hospital after three Italians, two men and Mrs. Tilotta, (Continued on Page Six)

EFFECTIVE WAR ON NOISE

England, like the United States, is troubled with traffic noises, but unlike the United States she is doing something about it.

The British minister of transport is seeking the elimination of excessive traffic noises through the use of rules, not laws. The rules are not arbitrary. The problem cannot be dealt with in that way. His more effective scheme is to make obedience advantageous.

To drive from the streets the hard tires which are noisy and injurious to the pavements a rebate in the petrol tax in favor of pneumatic tires will be allowed. Manufacturers of cars whose defects are a cause of excessive noise are to have the faults of their products publicly advertised by the government, which will very speedily eliminate that evil.

Unnecessary blowing of horns and clashing of gears is to be discouraged, the minister of transport finding for the latter an ally in the American car which has quieter gears and motors than European makes.

The government is doing its share in this anti-noise campaign by repairing the streets and highways that there may be fewer rattles and rattlers.

Motorized America might emulate this campaign to its advantage.

INEFFICIENT COMPETITION

Some American communities were planned. Some just grew. The community of the future will not only be laid out but will be built as a unit.

In anticipation of this development in community foundation an organization has made a study to determine the needs of a model town of 6,000 population. Besides the houses and apartments, it would need 70 stores, one hotel, one movie theater, a bank and 10 garages.

Those are the minimum requirements and take into consideration the factor of prosperity for the 83 different enterprises. In other words, that number will supply the town's needs and the town can support that number.

Few towns are "models" in this particular. There are usually too many—far too many—commercial establishments. Competition is keen and only the keen do a good business. Some manage to hang on through the years while others fail, only to have their places taken by new adventurers. It is a mistake to think that the barnacles of business benefit the community.

Commerce can learn something from the church. Realizing that every city and town has more churches than it can support properly, the Protestant churches are working seriously for unification and are making progress.

Mr. Darwin couldn't have been right. No matter how much you pet a monkey, it doesn't try to boss you.

Patronage doesn't prove that people like talk with their movies. They still buy radio sets in spite of static.

These people who yearn for a thrill might try walking down a back street with something resembling a pay roll.

Perhaps the old-time sweetheart just seemed sweeter than a mode sweetie because you never saw her cut loose and eat.

DOYLESTOWN FAIR HAS 20,000 EXHIBITS ENTERED

Entries Closed This Week;
Fair to Open September 24th

GROUNDS ENLARGED

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 19.—Entries closed yesterday for the seventh annual Doylestown Fair, the "wonder exhibition" of the East, and records show that over 20,000 exhibits of every conceivable description have been entered.

The fair will open next Tuesday, September 24th, and will continue five days and nights on the thirty-three acre fair plant east of town. The grounds have been enlarged and new buildings have been erected.

"We believe that the Doylestown Fair, a barometer used to judge the progress being made in one of the richest agricultural sections of the United States, is a realistic reproduction of the old-time country fair and has exhibits similar to which can be found at no other place," declared Dr. H. W. Turner, president of the fair today.

More elaborate preparations have been made for the fair this year than ever before. A year ago all attendance records were shattered, but this year it is expected last year's record will be doubled.

Doylestown Fair is different from other exhibitions in that society leaders of Philadelphia suburban sections as well as the farmers and Mr. and Mrs. Average Citizen of the suburban sections are attracted and rub shoulders together at the fair. The monster horse show, in which the well known driving and hunt clubs of suburban Philadelphia play a prominent part, bring the society matrons to the fair. The horse show will take place on Friday of fair week.

A poultry show with 1,000 entries, a flower show with over 500 entries, Rotary-Kiwanis Day, Doylestown Day, the horse show, horse racing every afternoon, automobile show, cattle show, dog show, rabbit and cavy show sponsored by the Philadelphia district association, antique show, a State Game Commission show of animals of the state, are but a few of the features this year.

There will be 10,000 school children admitted to the grounds on the opening day free of charge. Bucks county school houses will be closed on Tuesday of fair week. It is part of the yearly education of the children to attend the fair here.

Sixty-five years ago this fall the first Doylestown Fair was staged on the old exposition grounds. That fair became one of the most famous in the country, it being the most popular exhibition in the Middle Atlantic States. The last of the "old fair" was staged in 1891.

HULMEVILLE

Mrs. Edward Davis, president, presided at the business meeting of the Hulmeville W. C. T. U., at the home of Mrs. Jesse C. Everitt, Main street, last evening, and likewise had charge of the devotions. There were 10 in attendance.

CARD PARTY

In the announcement made regarding the Daughters of America card party to be held in the F. P. A. hall on Radcliffe street, a correction is to be made regarding the tied-up packages to be given away. It was stated that there would be nothing less than 25-cent articles, but it should read: All prizes in these packages are worth not over twenty-five cents.

IMPROVING

Charles Capella, of Jefferson avenue, who has been ill for two weeks, is improving.

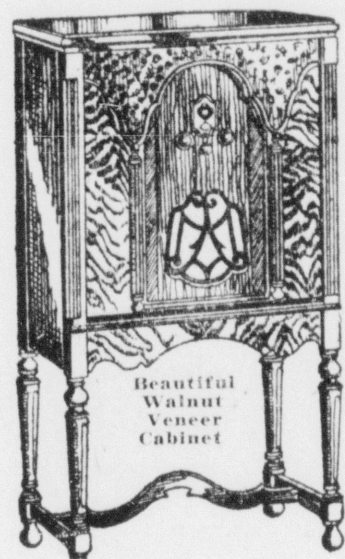

New G. A. R. Chief

Edwin J. Foster, 80, of Worcester, Mass., was elected Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic at the annual convention of the Civil War veterans held in Portland, Maine.

Experiment Now With One-Wheel Amphibian

A four passenger, all-metal cabin auto-giro will be entered by the British Cierva Company in the Guggenhelm $100,000 contest, Childs said.

Plant facilities now are ready for production of the plane but decision as to the models is being withheld pending possible engineering changes after the national air tour.

Since the Cierva Company of Philadelphia, is the licensing corporation, this plane probably will be the home of the auto-giro manufacture as Michigan is the home of automotive production. The backers of the plane believe that commercial production will be started by the first of the year, with concentration on the passenger carrying possibilities.

State licenses have been issued to 316 pilots and 289 airplanes in Pennsylvania, according to an announcement of the State Aeronautics Commission. In addition, 194 student pilots and 268 mechanics have been granted permits.

Officials of Rodgers Field, Pittsburgh, are conducting an investigation to determine the cause of the airplane crash in which Lieutenant Charles S. Tygard and Leo E. McElligot, attached to the 324th observation squadron, were killed. Their small monoplane banked vertically to avoid a tall tree and fell 200 feet.

A survey of airports, made by the State Highway Patrol, is now in the process of compilation and a report will soon be issued. Early reports indicate numerous violations of the law, according to the State Aeronautics Commission.

An elaborate program is being planned for the formal opening of the new Bethlehem airport on Saturday and Sunday, October 5 and 6. Miss Amelia Earhart and Clarence Chamberlin, successful trans-Atlantic pilots, will attend. Races of various kinds, stunt flying, parachute jumping, bombing and spot landing are included in the tentative program and participation of Army, Navy and Marine planes is expected.

Some towns and cities in Pennsylvania are being shunned by aviators, according to George R. Hann, president of Pittsburgh Aviation Industries Corporation, because of lack of air markers. Many towns are not sufficiently marked for identification from the air and flying safety, government officials point out, makes necessary the proper marking of all towns.

Your Children --- is their food safe ?

YOU, as a conscientious mother, buy the best food for your children, prepare it with scrupulous care and cook it correctly.

But even the best food becomes unsafe unless it is kept at the proper degree of cold, which medical authorities agree should be 50 degrees or less—always.

There is only one way to be sure that your children's food is fresh and healthful—correct refrigeration. There is one refrigerator that assures you of scientifically perfect refrigeration at all times—the General Electric.

The General Electric Refrigerator has a simple mechanism which you never need to oil, mounted on top of the cabinet and hermetically sealed in a steel casing. It has an accessible freezing regulator, makes a generous supply of ice cubes, creates no radio interference. It has the only all-steel, warp-proof cabinet—easily cleaned, sanitary. We shall be glad to help you select the model suited to your need and tell you about the spaced payment plan.

This record stands alone

There are now more than 300,000 homes enjoying the convenience, economy and protection of General Electric Refrigerators—and not one owner has spent a dollar for repairs or service.

Every General Electric Refrigerator is Hermetically Sealed

IN BED TWO MONTHS; THEN KONJOLA WON

For Three Years Rheumatism Made Life Miserable — But Famed Medicine Brought Relief

MRS. J. E. ANDERSON

"For three years I was the helpless victim of a stubborn case of rheumatism," said Mrs. James T. Anderson, R. R. No. 9, South Hill Branch, Pittsburg. "I could hardly move my body. Finally I became so bad that I had to remain in bed for two months. Stomach trouble, too, was one of my chronic ailments."

"My husband had read and heard so much about Konjola that he suggested that I give it a trial. It was exactly what I always needed. Konjola cleansed and invigorated my system. The poisons were eliminated. Rheumatism grew less severe and finally this new medicine drove it from my system. The soreness, pains and stiffness have disappeared and my digestion is perfect. I owe my new health to Konjola, and praise it highly."

Konjola is sold in Bristol at Hoffmann's Cut Rate store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—(Adv.)

CROYDON BOYS' CLUB DEFEATS BRISTOL NINE

CROYDON, Sept. 19.—Croydon Boys' Club defeated Bristol Collegians, the claimants of the junior championship of Bristol, in a one-sided game this week, score 11 to 1.

Croydon hit the ball hard throughout the game, collecting 12 hits, while Holland and Tryon held the Collegians at their mercy. Holland pitched seven innings, allowing two hits, one run, and striking out 16 men. Tryon pitched two innings, allowing no hits.

The local lads will open the club headquarters this evening at Tryon's Hall, through the kindness of Mr. Tryon, who has donated the use of the building.

The boys will have a big feed for all members. All boys between ages of 14 and 21 are eligible to join the club. Dues are to be used for social affairs.

On Saturday all candidates are expected to be out for football practice under the direction of Mr. Knight who will coach the players with the assistance of Robert Porter.

BRISTOL HIGH SCHOOL OPENS SEASON TOMORROW

By T. M. Juno

Bristol High School plays its first game of the season here tomorrow with Newtown High as their opponents.

The prospects for the Cardinal and Gray are very promising this season. A squad of fifty boys answered the call for practice by Coach Townsend and Assistant Coach Brown.

The line as was seen by the writer is much heavier than last year and is determined to break all defenses of their opponents. The backfield is fast but lacking in experience.

Coach Townsend will use but eight plays in an attempt to snatch the bacon from Newtown.

The local mentor is having a very serious problem in developing a quarterback. Raymond Pico, who was the most promising candidate for this position, injured his foot and will be lost for some time. It is most likely that Gaffney will now hold this position. The rest of the backfield men will be composed of Haines, Tranotti and Lafferty, halfbacks and quarter-back, respectively.

A few of the substitutes are: Dougherty, Wright, Watt, Galzerano, Gallagher, Bornice, Fantozzi, Niccols, Riskey, Milnor, DeMidio, Rotunno, Dorsey, Milnor and Strump.

The schedule as arranged by Manager William Wisner and Assistant Manager Arthur Rago is as follows:

Date, opponents and place:
Sept. 20: Newtown, home.
Sept. 27: Jenkintown, home.
Oct. 4: Berwyn, home.
Oct. 11: Langhorne, away.
Oct. 18: Doylestown, home.
Oct. 25: Ambler, away.
Nov. 1: Bordentown, away.
Nov. 8: Hopewell, away.
Nov. 15: Springfield, home.
Nov. 23: Morrisville, away.
Nov. 29: Temple, home.

FIRST AID INSTRUCTION
Bristol Troop, No. 2, Boy Scouts of America, held its weekly meeting in St. James' parish house, Tuesday evening. A goodly percentage of members were present, as well as committeemen. The troop was addressed by three committeemen, and lessons were given the lads in first aid and drilling by two of the men. Next Tuesday the troop will hold another meeting, and will receive further instruction in first aid.

ENTERTAINING TODAY

Mrs. Edmond Roper, of Maple Beach, is entertaining this afternoon and evening, the members of her Sunday School class of the Methodist Episcopal Church, taught by Miss Mary Lippincott. A social time will be had this afternoon, a supper served, after which a business meeting of the class will be held.

Maria Tilotta Weeps As Husband's Name is Mentioned

otta, plotted to get rid of him so that Mrs. Tilotta could go away and live with Giuseppe Guida, the prosecution alleges.

Dressed in a short-sleeved black dress Mrs. Tilotta shows extreme nervousness over the pending trial. She has been brooding since her incarceration in the county prison during the last eight months. Mrs. Tilotta was a pitiful sight seated at the defendant's table between her attorney and her 12-year-old son this morning. She cannot speak English and the proceedings are interpreted to her by the official court interpreter and by her son.

In the county prison, Giuseppe Guida, who secretly carried on a love affair with Mrs. Tilotta, is being spared from the death chair until he can testify in this case.

Mrs. Tilotta weeps bitterly whenever the name of her murdered husband is mentioned. She will deny that she had anything to do with the plot that resulted in the killing of her husband, although during the trial of Guida, it was testified that three persons were in the triangle plot and that $500 was paid to a Brooklyn gunman to do the killing.

Giuseppe Guida, the third member of the "eternal triangle," will not be tried until the next term of court in December.

Harriman Men's Club Has An Enjoyable Card Party

The first of a series of card parties was given by the members of the Harriman Men's Club, in their club rooms on Farragut avenue, Tues. evening. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed playing pinochle, there being twelve tables of players arranged.

The prizes which were given to those having high scores, were beautiful and useful, such as floor lamp, card table, end table, fernery, electric toaster, mirror, 12 glasses of jelly, window ventilators, aluminum ware, pocketbook and other things. Mrs. Marie Gratz, receiving a score of 772, chose the floor lamp. Others having high scores were:

Mrs. Mae Appleton, 765; D. H. Mulholland, 729; Mrs. Cora Marsh, 728; Mrs. Chester Beaton, 726; Mrs. A. Terneson, 718; Lester Williams, 717; Howard Appleton, 713; Helen Collins, 710; John Brehm, 710; Miss Anna Cullen, 707; Paul S. Acker, 701; Evelyn Force, 696; Mrs. E. Houser, 690; Miss Agnes Beaton, 688; Richard W. Wiley, 681; Mrs. J. N. Twining, 680; Leon Prickett, 675; Mrs. A. Smith, 675; Mrs. Russell Force, 672; Mrs. William Simons, 668; Mrs. A. Moore, 661; Silas King, 659; D. Lynn, 657; Mrs. E. Middleton, 656; Miss Anna Beaton, 656; Mrs. Charles Elliott, 655; Mrs. Paul Acker, 651; Mrs. Baxter, 648; Mrs. Roy Ott, 646; H. Roth, 645.

Mrs. Fred King received the non-player prize. Refreshments of sandwiches, soft drinks and candy were sold.

Samuel Shire announces that the club will hold a card party in their rooms on the second Tuesday evening of each month and they expect to continue awarding beautiful prizes, such as named above, making it interesting for the players to compete for. The public is invited to attend.

PLAY "500" AND BRIDGE

On Monday afternoon, a card party was given at the home of Mrs. Gordon, 500 Radcliffe street, for the benefit of the Needlework Guild. Eight tables of "500" and bridge were formed and a prize was awarded to the person having high score at each table. The prizes given were beautiful chiffon handkerchiefs. During the afternoon, candy was sold. A delicious homemade cake, donated by Mrs. Weagley, was sold. The party was a success and the afternoon enjoyed by those attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Press Hoover and daughter, Lucille, of Steubenville, Ohio, are visiting Mrs. John Bragg and family, of Lafayette street.
